

Pathology Associates Services Sponsors “Healthwise” Segment on WTVI

On Sunday, March 12, 2006 Pathology Associates Services sponsored a segment on WTVI Public Television titled “Skin Cancer Awareness.” The hour long program was hosted by Joey Popp and featured Dermatopathologist Kevin S. Smith, M.D., of Pathology Associates Services. Included on the panel discussion was Marc Carruth, M.D. of Carolina Skin Surgery and John Van Gorp, M.D., Ph.D. of Arboretum Dermatology. The program reviewed hints for preventing skin cancer, identifying skin cancer and the current treatment options available to patients. If you would like a DVD copy of “Skin Cancer Awareness” for your patient education library, please contact the Marketing Department at 704-549-8444, ext. 103 for your copy.
